

EUROPEAN STUDIES
STUDENT RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM
MAY 3, 2008

CALL FOR PROPOSALS
Undergraduate & Graduate

The European Studies Program is sponsoring a student research symposium in late Spring 2008 for students who would like to share:

- A paper or research project completed for any course (Summer and Fall 2007)
- A term paper or research project still underway (Spring 2008)
- A creative project or personal essay involving experience while studying abroad in Europe

The research symposium seeks students from all departments in the College and Schools of Architecture, Fine Arts, Journalism, and Business who have carried out or are currently engaged in a research or creative project related to the arts, literature, history, politics, business, economics, institutions, societies, or intellectual thought of Europe.

Present your findings and receive feedback from peers and KU faculty in a oral presentation (15 minutes). An excellent opportunity to practice your public-speaking skills and build your résumé. Selected presentations will be posted on the European Studies website.

Send an abstract (title and 125-word description) by email to Center for European Studies : ces@ku.edu

(Please include your full name and contact information, level of study and year, and major(s) or degree program).

Deadline for submission: April 1, 2008
(European Studies Program, 308 Bailey Hall)
