

Short CV

Personal

Office Address: Department of Geography
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas 66045
(913) 864-5537; FAX (913) 864-5276

Home Address: 2016 Melholland Road
Lawrence, Kansas 66047-2336
(913) 842-6814

Born: 2 January 1938, Nabrad, Hungary
U.S. Citizen
Wife: Jennie
Children: One--Mark Emery
Health: Good

Post Secondary Education

1958-59 Macdonald College of McGill University, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec, Canada
1960-63 B.A. McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada, Honors in Geography-History
1963-65 M.A. in Geography, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B. C., Canada
1965-68 Ph.D. in Geography, University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois

Appointments at University of Kansas

1968-72 Assistant Professor, University of Kansas
1972-79 Associate Professor, University of Kansas
1979-present Professor, University of Kansas

Post Doctorate Awards

1970-71 ACLS-SSRC grant for research and travel in Hungary and Eastern Europe
1974 NSF summer travel grant to Hungary
1976-77 IREX--Fulbright-Hays grant for research in the in the U.S.S.R. University exchange
1983 American Philosophical Society. Grant for research on Siberia.
1985 Earhart Foundation grant for research on Siberia
1985 IREX--Fulbright-Hays grant for research in the U.S.S.R. Academy exchange
1974 KU Summer research grant
1976 KU Summer research grant
1982 KU Summer research grant
1989 Averell Harriman Institute senior fellowship award. 5 months. Columbia University, NY.
1992 IREX--Fulbright-Hays grant to U.S.S.R. March 1 - May 31. To conduct research on .
Soviet petroleum industry and its prospects

Professional Duties and Functions

Associate Editor of Soviet Geography from 1987-1992.
Contributing Editor of Soviet Economy from 1985-1990.
On International Editorial Board of Studies in Comparative Communism. Until 1995.

Visiting Professorships and Research Appointments

1974, Sept.-May 1975 and summer 1996. Department of Geography, University of British Columbia, Canada
1981, Jan.-June Department of Geography, University of California, Berkeley, California
1982, Aug. 6-18 University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, Summer Research Laboratory on Russia and Eastern Europe
1984, June 1-1985, April 1. Visiting Research Scholar at the Slavic Research Center, Hokkaido University, Sapporo, Japan

1989, January-June. Senior Fellow at Averell Harriman Institute for Advanced Study of the Soviet Union. Columbia University, New York.

Principal Courses

Introductory and intermediate economic geography
Geography of energy
Regional analysis
Soviet Union, Successor States to the U.S.S.R.
Eastern Europe
Nations and nationalism. Focus on the former U.S.S.R.
Seminars.
Joint interdisciplinary seminar in Soviet and East European Studies

Consulting Experience

Consultant and reviewer for special reports and publications produced by Rand Corporation; CIA (unclassified); Exxon Corporation; Delphic Associates; U.S. Congress, Office of Technology Assessment; U.S. Congress, Joint Economic Committee; American Chemical Society; World Book Encyclopedia; a number of academic presses and commercial publishers.

Languages

	Read	Speak	Write
Hungarian	Fluently	Fluently
Fluently
Russian, French	Well	Passably
Passably
German, Polish, Ukrainian	Able to read simple professional literature.

PUBLICATIONS

Books:

1969 Locational Factors and Locational Developments in the Soviet Chemical Industry (Chicago: The University of Chicago, Department of Geography, Research Series Paper 199, June), 273 pp.

1979 With Theodore Shabad, The Soviet Energy System: Resource Use and Policies (Winston and John Wiley), 298 pp. I am responsible for Chapters 1-2 and 7-11, or about 60 percent of the book and for the planning of the chapters.

1985 George Hoffman with Leslie Dienes (minor author), European Energy Policy by Duke University Press. Author of chapter 3, "Energy Use and Conservation in Eastern and Western Europe."

1987 Soviet Asia: Economic Development and National Policy Choices (Boulder, CO: Westview Press), 289pp

1994 Leslie Dienes, István Dobozi (World Bank), Marian Radetzki (SNS Energy, Stockholm), Energy and Economic Reform in the Former Soviet Union (London, England: Macmillan, January 1994). 246 pp. + I-XIV. Responsible for half of the book and an unpublished technical Appendix.

Short Monographs

1998 Energy and Mineral Exports from the Former USSR: Philosopher's Stone or Fools' Gold. Henry Jackson School of International Studies, The Donald W. Treadgold Papers, No. 18, August. 83pp

1996 Corporate Russia. Privatization and Prospects of the Oil and Gas Sector. Henry Jackson School of International Studies, The Donald W. Treadgold Papers, No. 5, March. 77 pp.

1996 The Russian Oil and Gas Sector. Implications of the New property System. Commissioned by The _____ National Bureau of Asian Research, Seattle, Washington in series Executive Insights. 60 pp. For limited internal distribution aimed at petroleum companies and Asia scholars.

Encyclopedic Work. Invited contributor.

1998 Columbia Gazetteer of the World. Edited by Saul B. Cohen. Three volumes. January. Responsible for the section on Hungary in the re-edition of the Gazetteer, which was last published in the 1950s. Circa 500 entries.

Articles and chapters in journals and compendia: 55 (3 of these are updated versions requested by editors). Three of the articles were invited works by the U.S. Congress, Joint Economic Committee research staff. (in 1979, 1981, and 1985); one by NATO's Economic Directorate. Two others were commissioned by the U.S. Information Agency and by Radio Liberty research staff (1977 and 1989). Some others were requested by academic research institutes, mostly in the U.S.

The rest of the publications appeared in refereed academic journals, books and in compendia, the result of national and international conferences. Three articles appeared in Japanese as well as English.

Book reviews: 22. In professional journals of the social sciences, energy developments and policy.

Work submitted and in progress.

“Archipelago Russia: Economic Peaks in Dead Space.” Submitted for European Security Review. London, England.

“Geographic Space and Security on Russia’s Southern Periphery.” Being reworked in light of events in Afghanistan.

Articles since 1990.

1990 "Economic and Strategic Position and Prospects." Chapter 11 in A. Rodgers, ed., The Soviet Far East: Development and Prospects (London: Routledge, Chapman and Hall Inc.), pp. 269-301.

1991 Siberia: Perestroika and Economic Development," Soviet Geography, Vol. 32, No. 7, September, pp. 445-447.

1992 "Energy, Minerals, and Economic Policy," in I.S. Koropecykyj, ed., Ukrainian Economy. 1970-1900-2000. (Cambridge, Mass.: Harvard Ukrainian Research Institute), pp. 123-147.

1993 "Prospect for Russian Oil in the 1990s: Reserves and Costs," Post-Soviet Geography, Vol. 34, No. 2, February, pp. 79-110.

1993 (With Ilya Bass), "Defense Industry Legacies and Conversion in the Post-Soviet Realm," Post-Soviet Geography, Vol. 34, No. 5, May, pp. 302-317.

1993 "Economic-Geographic Relations in the Post-Soviet Republics," Post-Soviet Geography, Vol. 34, No. 8, October, pp. 497-529.

=====

Book reviews since 1990.

1990 Schiffer, Jonathan R. Soviet Regional Policy: East-West Debate Over Pacific Siberian Development. (New York: St. Martin’s Press, 1989). Reviewed for Journal of Comparative Economics, Vol. 15, 1991, pp. 555-558.

1997 Vesilind, Priit. “Kaliningrad: Coping with a German Past And a Russian Future.” Reviewed article and provided additional data for the National Geographic Society for the March issue of National Geographic Magazine.

1997 Liebowitz, Ronald D. and Michael Kraus eds., Russia and Eastern Europe after Communism. The Search for New Political, Economic, and Security Systems. Westview Press, 1996, 349 pp. Requested review by Economic Geography, July, pp. 360-363.

2001 L. Alexander Norsthorthy, Editor: Russian Views of the Transition in the Rural Sector: Structures, Policy Outcomes, and Adaptive Responses. Environmental and Socially Sustainable Development. Europe and Central Asia Region. The World Bank. Washington, DC. 2000 and Rural Development, Natural Resources and the Environment: Lessons and Experience in Eastern Europe and Central Asia. Washington, DC. 2000.

2000.