

Sponsored by the Friends of Eutin and the Department of Music and Dance, University of Kansas

Classical Guitar Duo
Sandra Flessau & Andreas van Zoest
from Eutin, Germany
March 2, 2008 at 2:30 PM in Swarthout
Recital Hall, University of Kansas

Suggested donation: $10 for adults and $5 for students benefits the Friends of Eutin and helps defray the artists' travel expenses

The program will include: excerpts from the opera Der Freischütz by Eutin-born composer Carl Maria von Weber; the Divertissement opus 68 of the Spanish guitarist and composer Fernando Sor; the Holberg Suite of Edvard Grieg on the centennial of his death; "Casablanca" by Jaime Zenamon, a musical tribute to the film; Pierre Petit's Toccata, with musical references to Gershwin's Porgy and Bess

Andreas van Zoest is the instructor in residence for guitar and ensemble performance in Kreismusikschule of Ostholstein and the director of the Guitar Orchestra of Eutin. His student Sandra Flessau has been playing guitar since the age of seven and was a prize-winner in the German national competition Jugend musiziert. They are currently on concert tour in Europe and the U.S.