

Executive Council of Graduate Faculty

Charge for the Council

Review, revise, and update Graduate Studies policy as needed;
Review and approve new graduate degree and certificate program proposals;
Serve as representative of the School/Division graduate faculty on all issues related to graduate education;
Advise the Dean of Graduate Studies in various areas, including (but not confined to):

- Scholarship disbursal
- Graduate Student professional development programming
- Application and admissions processing
- Progress toward degree communication and data collection
- Program review and assessment procedures

Policy approved by the Executive Council is sent to the Office of the Provost for final consideration.

Membership

The membership of the Executive Council is representative of the graduate faculty on KU's Lawrence Campus. One member from each of the professional schools and one from each of the five divisions of the College are appointed to staggered three-year terms, with nomination and selection within the representative's school/College.
