Dear Chancellor Gray-Little and Dean Mazza:

On behalf of the Executive Committee of the Association of American Law Schools, I extend our thanks to the University of Kansas School of Law for participating in the Association's periodic membership review. We recognize that the review process takes a significant amount of time, energy, and analysis and want you to know that we very much appreciate your efforts. As part of its review of your school at its November 2013 meeting, the Executive Committee considered the following information: the reports filed by the site evaluation team and the AALS reporter who visited your school on March 10-13, 2013, on behalf of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association; Dean Mazza's letter of August 13, 2013 to the ABA and of September 9, 2013 to the AALS; and the recommendation of the Association's Membership Review Committee.

I am very pleased to inform you that the Executive Committee has determined that your school complies with the obligations of membership, and your membership in the Association is, therefore, continued.

The Executive Committee warmly congratulates you, your faculty, staff, and students on your achievements since the last evaluation of the school. We appreciate your cooperation in the membership review process and look forward to the contributions of your law school to legal education and to our society in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Judith Areen
Interim Executive Director
