Research Integrity (RI) at the University of Kansas

Research Integrity, a unit of the Office of Research, works with university committees, departments and centers across campus to provide administrative oversight to numerous compliance areas, including

- Research involving humans
- Research involving animals
- Conflict of time and of interest
- Restricted research
- Responsible Conduct of Research training
- Scholarly misconduct, and
- Export controls

Use the tabs above the links under "RI Resources" to the right to access information, regulations, policies, procedures, and educational/outreach opportunities concerning compliance areas facilitated by Research Integrity. Please contact our staff with questions about compliance issues or if you wish to arrange for a presentation to your department, class, lab or other group regarding any of the compliance areas listed above.
