Because People Need to Know

KSPA Fall Conference

9 a.m. to 2 p.m. ● Monday, Sept. 22, 2008 ● University of Kansas, Lawrence

FEATURE SPEAKER AARON MANFULL

Aaron Manfull is the media adviser at Francis Howell North High School in St. Charles, MO. He taught for three years in Iowa and is in his eighth year of advising at FHN. There he advises the school's monthly newsmagazine, the yearbook, the weekly video podcast and the daily online edition FHNtoday.com. Manfull is a frequent and popular conference and convention speaker at both state and national events.

The Kansas Scholastic Press Association will sponsor its tenth annual Fall Journalism Conference Monday, Sept. 22, 2008 at the University of Kansas in Lawrence. Sessions are being planned for both junior and senior high students.

More than 60 one-hour sessions are on the schedule. Special sessions will be presented for advisers. Both advanced and beginning students will find sessions suited for them. The cost for the one-day session will be $13 per person for KSPA members and $15 for non-KSPA members. Please note the fee does not include lunch. Students and advisers will be on their own for lunch; however, meal service may be obtained in the Kansas Union on the third level.

The registration deadline for the fall conference is Monday, Sept. 15, 2008. Registrations faxed or postmarked after Sept. 15 cannot be accepted. Advisers may substitute students as long as the number in attendance is not greater than the number pre-registered. Checks should accompany the pre-registration form. With your acknowledgment letter you will receive a campus map for your convenience. Should you need motel accommodations, please contact KSPA to make the necessary arrangements.

Registration materials may be picked up in the main lobby of the Kansas Union on the fourth level. The opening session will begin at 9 a.m. in the Kansas Union Ballroom.

Parking on college campuses is always difficult. Buses may pass through the traffic kiosks and unload passengers at the front entrance to the Kansas Union. Buses will then need to park in Lot #300 which is located at the Lied Center. There is no charge for buses parking at the Lied Center parking lot. Other vehicles may park in Lot #94 by reserving a $6 visitor pass. Please mark the appropriate place on the registration form and return with your payment. Individual cars and vans may want to park in the parking garage adjacent to and just north of the Kansas Union.

The conference will be in the Kansas Union. Maps for these locations will be provided in your packets. Doughnuts and juice will be available at registration.

If you have questions regarding the fall conference, contact John Hudnall, KSPA Executive Director, at 785-864-0605. Please return the completed registration form with a check or purchase order as soon as possible.

Registration Deadline is Monday, Sept. 15, 2008.
For more information, call (785) 864-0605 or fax (785) 864-5945.
