To Whom It May Concern:

The University of Kansas is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. This institution has been continuously accredited since 1913. The enclosed Statement of Affiliation Status provides additional details about the accreditation relationship of the Higher Learning Commission to this institution.

The institution has the following campuses and additional locations, which the Commission has reviewed and approved under Commission policies requiring prior approval of all such campuses and additional locations, which are defined as locations where the institution offers 50% or more of a degree program:

NAME OF CAMPUS OR ADDITIONAL LOCATION

University of Kansas, Medical Center	Kansas City, KS
University of Kansas, Medical Center	Wichita, KS
University of Kansas, Edwards Campus	Overland Park, KS
Kansas City Kansas Community College	Kansas City, KS
Fort Leavenworth	Leavenworth, KS
Salina Regional Health Center	Salina, KS
University of Kansas, Public Management Center	Topeka, KS

The Commission also includes in its accreditation of the University of Kansas a number of instructional facilities that do not require the Commission's prior approval. These facilities include course locations in-state that offer less than 50% of a degree program. The institution may provide internships, clinicals and practica that do not require separate approval and are not separately tracked by the Commission. In addition, the institution may also have lecture facilities, laboratories, etc. attached to its existing campuses, additional locations or course locations that are not separately tracked, reviewed or approved by the Commission .

The Commission's accreditation includes all courses offered by the institution at the campuses, additional location or other instructional facilities noted above.

If you have questions regarding the status of the institution in the future, please see our Web site at www.ncahlc.org. If you have further questions at this time, please feel free to contact (ksolinski@hlcommission.org, 312-263-0456 ext. 111).

Sincerely,

Patricia Newton-Curran
