

Organ

ORGN 502/702 Master Class in Organ

A weekly master class for organ and church music majors

ORGN 520/720 Studio Class in Organ

A weekly performance class for organ and church music majors

ORGN 800 Organ Building and Design (3)

Acoustics; design, construction, and maintenance of organs; organ consulting, examination of organs.

ORGN 801 History of Organ Literature and Design I (3)

Organ literature and organ design from the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, and the Spanish, Italian, and English Baroque.

ORGN 802 History of Organ Literature and Organ Design II (3)

Organ literature and organ design in the Dutch and German Baroque with special emphasis on J. S. Bach.

ORGN 803 History of Organ Literature and Organ Design III (3)

French organ literature and organ design from the 17th century to the present.

ORGN 804 History of Organ Literature and Organ Design IV (3)

German, North American, British, Scandinavian, and Eastern European organ literature and organ design from the Classic era to the present.

ORGN 805: Selected Topics in Organ (1-3)

An exploration of selected topics in organ literature and design. Topics change by semester. May be repeated for credit.

ORGN 806 Organ Pedagogy (3)

Philosophy, methods, and materials of organ pedagogy.

ORGN 807: Organ Study Tour (1-3)

Study of European or North American organs through readings and site visits to instruments