

Doctoral Fellowships For Those Who Aspire to Make a Difference

Information for 2008 Self Graduate Fellowship (SGF) Nominees

Criteria for Selection

The Madison and Lila Self Graduate Fellowship offers a special opportunity for students seeking a Ph.D. at the University of Kansas. Outstanding Ph.D. applicants and first-year Ph.D. students in eligible disciplines may be nominated by their departments for a Self Graduate Fellowship.

The fellowship is highly competitive, in a way we think is unique. We're looking for the attributes that we believe will put you on track to make a difference in the world and in your profession. What are we looking for? We're looking for high potential individuals who have a vision, career goals, leadership potential, motivation, and a strong work ethic. Self Fellows also demonstrate initiative and passion for achievement and lifelong learning.

Nomination Process

KU academic departments identify and nominate applicants for doctoral study and first-year doctoral students who are potential Self Fellows. The nomination file submitted by the department will include a letter of nomination from the department, your graduate school application, academic letters of recommendation, transcripts of all college or university work, GRE scores if required, your application statement to the department, your resume, and other supporting material from your file. The department may contact you to get additional letters of recommendation specifically for the Self Graduate Fellowship. The file is complete when we receive your SGF personal statement. We rely on this file to tell us how you match the attributes of a Self Fellow.

Instructions

Personal Statement

Your personal statement is critical to your success in the Self Graduate Fellowship selection process. Your statement should be authentic and should tell your story in your own words. Remember that through this document you will try to convince the evaluation committee that you deserve an interview. Your personal statement should address the following points:

- the academic and professional choices you have made to date and why
- your career goals, both short-term and long-term (Do you plan to pursue a career in the private sector, government, or higher education?)
- how you envision yourself in a leadership role
- how you match the Self Fellow profile (below)

Self Fellow Profile

The ideal candidate possesses unusual motivation, passion, and potential to make significant contributions to his/her profession and to society. In addition to a strong academic record, he or she has leadership, communication, and decision-making skills. He or she displays personal attributes including self-awareness, emotional maturity, initiative, tenacity, energy, vision, risk-taking, and inter-personal effectiveness. The ideal candidate is interested in personal development and lifelong learning and is committed to participation in the Fellow Development Program.

Before you begin, be sure to review the SGF web page <http://www.ku.edu/~selfpro>. Your statement should be two to three pages long and in 12-point type.

Access/Waiver Form

We must receive a completed access/waiver form from you. A form submitted from your email address will be accepted in lieu of a signed form. You can also fax us the form or attach a completed scanned document.

Student Resume

All 2008 nominees should submit a resume to the nominating department. The resume should highlight experiences and significant achievements from work, school, volunteer projects, and extracurricular activities. Awards and honors, and research experiences should be listed. Memberships and offices held should be noted.

Deadline

Your SGF personal statement and access/waiver form must reach the Self Graduate Fellowship office by 5 p.m. on January 31, 2008. Please send by email to self@ku.edu or fax to 785-864-0394.

The Selection Process

The Self Graduate Fellowship Board of Trustees and an evaluation committee work to fulfill the mission and goals of the fellowship as they select students to interview for the fellowship. Their responsibility is to select individuals whose academic preparation, vision, and commitment to career goals match the Self Fellow Profile.

Self Graduate Fellowship Interview

Candidates selected for interviews will be notified by February 15, 2008.

Interviews will be held February 27 – March 2, 2008. Please block this time since no alternate dates will be scheduled. During the visit, interviewees will have the opportunity to interact with faculty, other graduate students and Self Fellows, and to explore the KU campus and the city of Lawrence.

Those invited to interview will be asked to provide proof of U.S. citizenship prior to the interview. Acceptable documents are a copy of a birth certificate, a passport, or proof of naturalization.

The Self Graduate Fellowship interview will take approximately one hour. During this time, students will have the opportunity to describe their accomplishments and their goals to the team of three interviewers. The setting is a small conference room, and no audio visual equipment or handouts are necessary. Business attire is appropriate.

The Self Graduate Fellowship will pay expenses incurred for the interview trip to Lawrence.

Self Graduate Fellowship Offers

After the interviews are completed, the SGF Board of Trustees makes the final selections. Offers are extended in cooperation with academic departments by mid-March.

The deadline for acceptance of offers is April 15, 2008. Students are encouraged to communicate their decisions as soon as possible since their decision may impact other individuals.

If you have questions, please contact Sharon Graham, 785-864-7249 or sgraham@ku.edu.
