Topeka Daylily Club
Scholarship

The Topeka Daylily club is pleased to be able to offer two scholarships to sophomores enrolled as full-time students in any Kansas college or university. Each scholarship is for $500.00 payable to the university in the recipient’s name. One scholarship is for a student majoring in horticulture and the other scholarship is open to any second year student seeking a degree in any field.

Any second year student can apply by filling out the appropriate scholarship application form and returning it to the Topeka Daylily Club later than June 1. The application should be returned to:

Helen Adams
2236 SW Llandovery Ln.
Topeka, KS 66614

A completed application for either scholarship is considered an unwritten agreement between the student and the scholarship committee of the Topeka Daylily Club that the review committee has the applicant’s permission to confirm and validate the applicant’s eligibility with their school. Feel free to copy the form for the students.

The students who are chosen to receive the scholarships will be notified by mail before the start of the fall semester.
